that this walk-out would turn out to be the last walk-out at the time of Governor's Address to the joint session of the Karnataka Legislature and by next such occassion, our demands would have been met.

(At this stage, Hon'ble Members Sriyuths R.S. Mane, B.I. Patil and V.P. Patil staged a walk-out).

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR OF KARNATAKA.—The resignation of the State Council of Ministers which followed was an act upholding high moral standards.....

(Here enter the printed speech)

Following this, elections to the State Legislative Assembly have been held and the people of Karnataka have given a missive mandate to the Janatha Party in no uncertain terms. I pay high tribute to the people of Karnataka in having returned my Government with such majority. On this occassion, I recall my message to the people of Karnataka on the eve of the Republic Day when I expressed the hope that the people will show a high sense of maturity and independence in electing the Government. I am very happy that the people of Karnataka have shown e emplary maturity in returning the Janatha Party to power which believes in value bassed polities. I am sure a new ara has begun in the annals of Karnataka. I assure that the immense faith that the people of Karnataka have shown to my Government will be redeemed by the Government by giving a clean and efficient administration and politics based on value and virtue. That will be the fitiing tribute that my Government can pay to the people of Karnataka.

3. This Government is committed to provide a clean and efficient administration which is also accessible and responsive to the people. It has been close to the people of Karnataka and has achieved results on many fronts in spite of vorious efforts at destabilisation. While safe-guarding the interests of the people or Karnataka and working for their welfare and advancement my Government will endeavour to maintain cordial relationship with the Government of India and seek their co-operation in achieving the primary objective of improving the lot of the people. My Government will transla e into action the assurance held out by the Janatha Party prior to the elections however much it may pose a serious challenge to the financial resources of the State,

4. The law and order situation in the State during the year gone by was generally peaceful. There were a few communal disturbances in certain pockets of the State and some stray incidents of violence, which were controlled with a firm hand. Industrial
